

Unit of work
Who Likes Chocolate?

Year group
2

Prior learning

- Children will have used atlases before to look at countries and a map of the world.
- In reception children will have looked at farm/farmers.
- Children will have looked at 'diversity' through everybody is different other PSHE units.

National Curriculum

- Fair trade
- Globalization
- Hunger & Poverty
- Inequalities
- Media and stereotyping

Knowledge/ Skills

- Children will understand where different foods come from (mainly chocolate).
- They will understand that eat different foods when we celebrate different occasions such as Christmas, Easter, Eid.
- They will explore different types of chocolate and why it is eaten.
- Key dates when chocolate first appeared in cakes 1828.
- To know where chocolate comes from.
- To show on a map the different countries that chocolate come from.
- To learn and understand what fair trade is and what countries use these principles.

Vocabulary and definitions

Word	Definition
fair trade	Trade between companies in developed countries. Fair prices are paid to the producers.
culture	The ideas, customs and social behaviors of a particular people or society
chocolate	A food in the form of a paste or solid block made from roasted and ground cacao seeds.
farmer	A person who owns or manages a farm
factory	A building or group of buildings where goods are manufactured or assembled by a machine
diversity	The state of being diverse
import	Bring goods or services into a country from abroad for sale

Significant People

Joseph Fry- Created the first modern chocolate bar in 1847.

Cadbury- The first company to market boxes of chocolate candies in the UK in 1868.

Pictures/ timelines/ map/ diagrams

